

Playing rugby

Dear Big Dee,

Hi, I am Paco. I like playing rugby. Recently, I joined the rugby competition in Tai Po and won a gold medal! Do you play rugby? I also like reading books. My favourite is Funny School. It is about a boy who always makes mistakes. It is really funny! Do you want to read this book?

Paco

Dear Paco,

I love football, but I never tried rugby. I once watched a rugby match and it seems exciting and aggressive. It is very cool that you won a gold medal in this sport! I am not sure if I can play it well myself; it looks difficult! Funny School sounds hilarious. It must be silly to see someone make so many mistakes! I will try to read this book! It is nice to know I am not the only one who always makes mistakes!

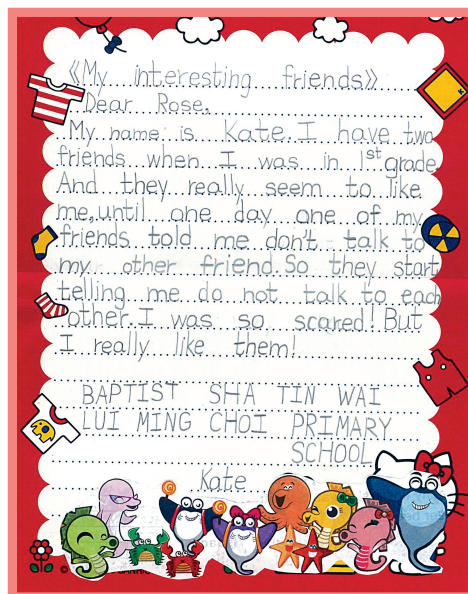

My interesting friends

Dear Rose,

My name is Kate. I have two friends, and they really seem to like me. But one day one of my friends told me not to talk to my other friend. So they both started telling me to not talk to the other. I was so scared! But I really like them!

Dear Kate,

It is a pity when friends stop talking to each other, or, as it is said in social media, 'unfriend' each other. Perhaps you can try to find out why. Maybe there is a misunderstanding between them? As both their friend, you can try to be a bridge between them and help them reconnect. You can also tell your friends that they should try to talk about it, rather than complain to others. It only makes their relationship worse. I hope your pals can rebuild their friendship!

How to get started with Ting

1. To switch on your Ting pen, press this button for two seconds. You will hear a tune when the pen comes on.

2. On the front page, touch this icon seen to the left with the tip of your pen.

3. You will hear 'Please connect to your computer' and once you connect the pen to your PC, the program will be downloaded and you are ready to listen to the Cover Feature with your pen.

That's all! Your Ting pen is now ready to use.
